PRESIDENT'S WELCOME TO THE NEW MEN

The University of North Carolina extends her heartiest welcome to the men who will make up her entering class this fall. This welcome is in no sense perfunctory; it comes form the hearts of students and faculty alike.

You are about to enter the fellowship of Carolina men and you should enter it with a definite purpose in mind. That purpose should be to strive for the best things, the finest things in every phase of your life here.

You want to make up your mind, first, to come out of college physically a better man than you enter it. Set your physical standards high; do not be content to be anything short of the best physical condition.

Strive, too, for the best the college has to offer you in an intellectual way. All of college training is not to be found in books, but a very important part of it is. Determine to make your mind the most efficient and capable instrument you can; sharpen it to a keen cutting edge.

Remember, next, that unless your spiritual development keeps pace with your physical and mental development, your college life will be a failure. A successful college career must be great in the spiritual as well as in the material things. You will soon find that the men who are regarded by your fellows as outstanding successes are men who think first of service, and secondly only of self, men whose sense of spiritual values is deep and keen.

Make up your mind to achieve a fine and worthy college career for yourself. But do not forget that to do this you must learn to put the interests of the college as a whole above your own desires.

You want to do your part in making your class the best class that Carolina ever had. And a great class, like a great individual must become great through service to the whole of which it is a part.

Don't wait to enter into the fine things that college has for you. Start at once to make the right kind of friends, to get the most out of your classes, to enter freely into the campus life.

And above all, come to your work and your play here with the determination to put every ounce of your power into all the worthwhile things you will find to do here. The man who comes to college in a half-hearted spirit had better not have come at all. You will have to pay the price of classroom and campus success in good, hard, clean work. Make up your minds now to pay it and to pay it gladly.

Sincerely yours,

H. W. Chase,
President.

The Societies

There are two Literary Societies at the University, the Dialectic and the Philanthropic. They were both established in 1795, the latter being at first called the Concord Society. To one of these Societies each Student is required to attach himself. Both Societies are secret.

Buildings

The Buildings of the University are nine in number, besides the Gymnasium, which is situated just outside the western limits of the Campus, and does not belong to the University.

Discipline

The students are required (1) to use their time properly (2) to keep out of vice. To this end every student is expected to attend at least fifteen class exercises weekly, to perform his work faithfully, and to observe order and quiet in and near the buildings during study hours; and students are not allowed to carry or use pistols or other dangerous weapons, or to drink or give to others any intoxicating liquor, or to indulge in hazing or teasing new students, or to absent themselves from their classes except on necessity, or to leave Chapel Hill unless permitted by the President or Chairman of the Faculty.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT AT CAROLINA

ED HUDGINS, JR.
President of Student Body 1928-29

Government on this campus is the government of the governed—the students. No constitution has ever been adopted here: no code of laws has ever been established: no rules of conduct have ever been laid down. The standard set up and followed is what a gentleman would do under the circumstances. The campus being composed of gentlemen, it is eminently fitting and proper that such be the standard of measuring conduct.

Our student government is one of tradition, precedent, and practice; it is just what it is today, what it has developed into. It is a government of public opinion. We have no policemen on the campus, and any method of espionage is frowned upon by both the students and the faculty. Whenever any custom or practice has been condemned by the students, it is doomed. When a student has, by his action and conduct, violated the code and degraded the title of a gentleman, he is subjected to severe discipline by the Student Council, the administrative organ of student government.

No one will contend that we have a perfect honor system here. We haven't. That is a goal in the future, an ideal, something ultimate; but no one will deny that we have gone a long way from nowhere to an approach to that ideal, and it has so operated in the past as to set Carolina apart from the other institutions in this Commonwealth and in this Southland as something distinctive. All down through the years we have striven to approach that ideal a little closer. It would be tragic to stop now and turn back when the goal is almost in sight. Upon you men coming fresh from the state into the campus citizenship, rests the burden of carrying on the work your fathers and brothers began so well. How you accept this challenge from the past to "carry on" remains to be proven. If you are weak and drag public opinion of the campus down to your level the University is, in that far, feeble. If you are strong student government is vitalized. If you enter into the citizenship of this campus with the resolve that the work of the men who have labored in the past shall not have been in vain then the "Honor System" shall not become an empty phrase. I think it would be fine if the word could go out to the world that the Carolina men of 1932 affirm their faith in student government and the honor code and pledge their best efforts in coöperation to that end.

The Student Council is the administrative organ of the student body and Student Discipline. It sits as a court and hears cases of violations of the Honor System and metes out punishment according to the circumstances of each case. The council is composed of eight men, of which the President of the Student Body is Chairman; one representative from each of the three undergraduate classes, chosen by the class of which he is a member; one representative from each of the three schools of Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy; and one representative carried over from the council of the previous year.

CAROLINA—Carolina welcomes you, new men. When you join the students on her campus, you will sense about you a feeling of friendliness that soon draws you into the heart of a little community. There you will find a new freedom, both of thought and of action, a freedom which is given you with the understanding that you, as a gentlemen, will not abuse it. You will find a University which is training you for a life of service to your state—not a taskmaker who confines you to books. You will find a University which realizes the importance of the individual—not a factory which turns out graduates made-to-order. And it is these qualities—friendliness, freedom, service, individualism and loyalty that have won for the University the high position it now holds and which go to make up that intangible thing called the "Carolina Spirit."

WHAT TO BRING—When you are ready to pack your trunk for the trip to Chapel Hill, be sure to bring bed linen, a pillow, blankets, towels, and a laundry bag. Your room contains only the beds, chairs, tables, and chiffonier. It is best to pack some bed linen in your suitcase, for you may not get your trunk for a day or two. You will want pennants and pictures for the walls of your room. A rug or so for the floor, curtains for the windows, and a small study lamp for the table will make your room more attractive but are not essential. A dictionary is indispensable—bring yours and also any other books that you would like to have with you. Bring along a kodak if you have one, for you will want to take pictures of your new home. You will find use for all the athletic equipment you have—baseball and gloves, tennis racket, white duck pants, gym shoes, etc.

THE TRIP TO THE HILL—Make your plans so as to reach the Hill early on the morning of September 17. There are four ways of reaching the University, by automobile, bus, train, or train-and-bus. If you come by auto or bus, you will find excellent roads leading to Chapel Hill. If you come by train, buy your ticket to Chapel Hill and check your trunk straight through. You will have to change trains at University Station, which is about ten miles from the campus. Many boys buy their railroad tickets to Durham and go from there to Chapel Hill (twelve miles) on the bus. In either case give your baggage checks to one of the many transfer men who will be waiting when you get off the train, and he will deliver your trunk to your room. Be sure to take the man's name and address so you can look him up if your trunk is not delivered within two or three days.

AT THE HILL—The first thing to do when you reach the Hill is to get the key to your room—all rooms are locked. You can get this key at the Buildings Department (at the foot of the smokestack which can be seen at the right and rear of the Y. M. C. A.). If you wish, you may leave your suitcase at the "Y" while you get your key. If you do not have a room reserved, go to the Treasurer's office on the first floor of South Building. In case you cannot find your dormitory by the map in the handbook, the man at the "Y" will be glad to show you where it is. It is a good plan to fix up your room as soon as you can. Make it attractive with pictures and pennants, for it will be your home during the year. Get acquainted with your fellow classmates in the dormitory. The first few days before the upperclassmen arrive will be a good time for this. If you have time, it will be best to go to the Gym and get your physical examination Monday afternoon.

PLACE TO EAT—For the first few days it is a good idea to get your meals at the cafe or one of the several cafeterias. During this time you will have a chance to look around and see where you wish to board regularly. Swain Hall is the University profit-sharing dining room at which about one-fourth of the students eat; board costs $22 per month. There are numerous private boarding houses where board may be obtained for $25 to $39 per month. Student managers will be glad to sign you up for these.

FRESHMAN WEEK—The system of Freshman Week was inaugurated in order to introduce the new men to the University. The week's program begins Monday morning, September 17, at 9:00 o'clock, at which time all new men are to assemble in Memorial Hall. They will then be divided into small groups and for a period of three days will follow a definite schedule including physical examination, intelligence test, English placement test, library tour, special lectures on student traditions and the honor system, and individual conferences with a faculty adviser. Registration for courses will take place on Wednesday.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES—After you get settled at Carolina, you will want to take part in some of the many campus activities. Go out for those things that you like to do, but be sure to include a variety of interests so as to have a well-rounded four years of college. The following outline of activities may help you in your choice.

Scholastic—(Honor Roll, Phi Beta Kappa.)

Athletic—(Freshman football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, wrestling, boxing, Intra-mural sports.)

Religious—(Y. M. C. A., Churches, Sunday Schools, young people's organizations.)

Social—(Fraternities.)

Literary—(Tar Heel, Yackety Yack, Magazine, Buccaneer, Di and Phi Societies, Debating.)

Musical and Dramatic—(Playmakers, Wigue and Masque, Glee Club, Band, Orchestra, "Cheerios.")

Managing—(All athletic teams, all publications, Playmakers.)

MISCELLANEOUS TIPS AND INFORMATION—Athletics is an important phase of college life. Go out for some team and do your best. Even if you don't make the first team you can make a place on the squad and, in so doing, get sufficient exercise, form new friendships, and be of service to your school. Be sure to attend all athletic contests and learn the songs and yells.  While fraternities afford pleasure to their members, it is not at all necessary or even important that you become a member. The majority of students at Carolina do not belong to any fraternity, so do not feel hurt if you are not asked to join. If a fraternity rushes you, go slow, treat the members cordially but not over-cordially, and go to the house only when asked. Do not be in any hurry to make your decision, and by no means pledge yourself before Pledge Day.  You should go to Church at least once every Sunday. The Chapel Hill churches are glad to welcome you and you will find that church attendance is necessary for a well-rounded development.  Expenses will run from $400 to $1,500, depending entirely upon the individual student. The average is about $675. Probably the best way of handling the money is to have a checking account in your home town bank. If necessary, you can earn part of your expenses. The "Y" maintains a Self-help Bureau to assist you with your finance problems. About half the boys of Carolina are either wholly or partially self-supporting.  There is almost no hazing at Carolina.  Don't fail to write home often. The family will want to hear all about your new surroundings and will like to get letters when you do not have to ask for money.  Speak to all the fellows you meet on the campus. Carolina is noted for her spirit of friendliness, and it's up to you to carry on the tradition.  Mail is delivered to all the dormitories twice a day.  Laundry is done by the University Laundry, a fee for it being included in the registration fee.  If you are sick, the University Infirmary is the place to go. Dr. Abernethy will fix you up.  You can buy your books at the Book Exchange, which is located in the "Y" building.  Familiarize yourself with the Library. There you will find any book you would like to read and also a place to study.  Consult your faculty adviser about any matter that troubles you; he will be glad to help. Any upperclassmen will also be glad to be of service to you. Consult your dean or professors concerning any important question dealing with the curriculum; from them you will be sure to get correct information.

FINAL TIPS—When you plan you year's work, be sure to see that you devote a part of your time to each of the four phases of the well-balanced life: mental, physical, religious, social. Remember that study is the principal object for which you came to college and do not neglect your work. It is far better to keep up with your courses day by day than to put off all work until the week before exams. Take time every day for some healthful exercise. Go to church on Sunday and take part in the religious life of the campus. Devote part of your time to cultivating friendships for they will mean a great deal to you.  Take a little time off every once in a while to check up on what you are doing in college. See if you are working for things that are really worth while and not merely wasting your time in pursuit of something which, when attained, will mean nothing to you. A little time spent in thinking things over will save you a lot of trouble, mistakes, and disappointments.

AND, IN CONCLUSION—Remember that the Y. M. C. A. is ready to help you at all times. If you want information, advice, or help about anything under the sun, go to the "Y" and you will get what you want. The "Y" slogan is: "If we can't help you, we'll certainly find some one who can."

We were ready to close these "tips" when the Registrar came in and asked for a final word with the prospective students for this fall. It is rather characteristic of his department to insist on the last word; so we had to yield this time, even as we did as students long ago. He wanted us to say a few words about class attendance and things appertaining thereto.

Class attendance, as we were reminded, is a very important item in any college man's scheme of life. Instructors oftentimes gain their impressions, favorable or not as the case may be, of a student by the regularity of his class attendance and his punctuality also. Conscientious and steady application to study assignments is of course a requisite for satisfactory progress; but attendance is also a factor of tremendous bearing. Investigation shows that poor scholarship—failures, particularly—is often traceable directly to irregular attendance on classes. Experience, therefore, points to the advisability of emphasizing regular class attendance.

"Cuts," as unauthorized absences are familiarly known, should be held down to a very low minimum. When it is remembered that all colleges and universities are reasonably lenient in the matter of granting leaves of absence in cases having the ear-marks of necessity or reason, the justification for "cuts" dwindles into nothingness. To have the stamp of approval, a leave of absence—whether it be for Saturday morning, at which time the weekly science tests are given and the bi-weekly history tests, or for sister's wedding, or the boy scout convention, or just to tell the folks about things in general—should be recorded officially in the office of the Registrar. This covers the days of absence and the specific classes to be missed. It is not sufficient to seek authorization after the absences have occurred; it should be by all means be done before. Most instructors, too, like to know in advance about such matters. They do not like to think that the boys are deliberately "cutting" their classes. College teachers, like other people, have considerable pride. Their pride is piqued when an array of empty seats greets them.

Final examinations are given at the end of each quarter during a period of days set aside for this particular purpose. It is imperatively necessary to be on hand and ready for these final "quizzes," even as it is necessary to be on hand and ready for the weekly and bi-weekly tests. Many students each year flagrantly neglect the tests given from time to time and, consequently, have an insurmountable difficulty before them in the form of accumulated tests to be taken. Courses are lost in this manner, because one can only do so much work at any one time. The successful student is always ready and on hand for and with all his work.

Tardiness in college, as in high or preparatory school, is a punishable offense, even as it is an almost unpardonable offense. The work of a class is necessarily interrupted by late "comers," and the offenders themselves cannot avoid a disadvantage by having missed the part of the exercise which preceded their advent. Teachers oftentimes penalize "tardies."

This "tip" is in no wise designed to discourage any prospective student. Rather is it hoped that many will be reminded of these important details of their college career and profit by the reminder. The University of North Carolina is particularly eager to relieve the mortality of the first-year students, scholastically speaking, by making any suggestion possible that is of value. A reasonable number of absences without authorization is allowed. For these no disciplinary action is taken against the student. But when one persists in going beyond reason, the deans are forced to take disciplinary action, which frequently takes the form of the student's being dropped from the course or courses with grade of F (failure). Attendance probation usually follows when such action must be taken by a dean, and, probation being imposed, no more "cuts" can be taken at all—not even from a single class. Failure to abide by the probation regulation results in suspension from the institution for "wilful neglect of duty." There is really no reason why the class of 1932 should ever have its record tarnished through such carelessness. If each student will do the right and proper thing, all will be well and all will benefit greatly.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OBJECTIVE

1. "To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ as their Divine Lord and Saviour, according to the Holy Scriptures."

2. "To lead them into the membership and service of the Christian Church."

3. "To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible."

4. "To train them for work and leadership in applying the principles of Christ to the problems of human society."

5. "To win their life devotion to the purpose of Christ for the evangelization of the world."

AGE AND EXTENT—The Young Men's Christian Association is the largest student organization in the world. It is operating in 700 schools in the United States with a total membership of over 79,000 students.

The first Y. M. C. A. was organized by Sir George Williams in 1844, in London, England. The first student "Y" was established in the U. S. in 1857, at the Universities of Michigan and Virginia. It was established at the University of North Carolina in 1860.

North America has 2085 Y. M. C. A.'s, including all types, with a total membership of 925,000. There is a total of 9,000 Y. M. C. A.'s in the world distributed over 48 different countries, with a total membership of 1,500,000 men and boys. There are 6,000 employed Y. M. C. A. Secretaries in the world. The total value of all Y. M. C. A. buildings and property in the world is approximately $200,000,000.

MEMBERSHIP—Membership is based on the above Objective of the Young Men's Christian Association in general. Those accepting this statement in full are known as ACTIVE members and are eligible to all privileges of the local Association, including office-holding. Those subscribing to these principles only in part, are known as ASSOCIATE members, and are entitled to all privileges of the local Association, except office-holding.

THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING—The "Y" building is located in the very center of the campus, and stands as the "Community House" or "Campus Club" for the free use of the entire student body. It is the "meeting place" of the campus. You are urged to make this your "home" from the first day you land in Chapel Hill.

The present "Y" building is entirely inadequate to meet the demands of a student body of over 2,500 men, and it is planned to proceed with plans for new and larger quarters in the near future. This little building was erected 25 years ago out of funds specially raised by the students and faculty of the University. Hundreds of people made contributions to the fund for the present building.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE UNIVERSITY Y. M. C. A.—The University Y. M. C. A. has an annual budget of $12,000. One-half of this amount comes as a cash appropriation direct from the University administration. The remaining half is raised by the student Cabinets and Board of Directors through means of free-will contributions from students, faculty, alumni, and friends of the university.

The student body, of over 2,500 men, is of course the largest source of income for the amount the Cabinets raise. Of this $6,000 the student body is expected to contribute about $5,000. All other campus activities, including season passes to athletic events, subscription to the four student publications, and intercollegiate debates are paid direct to the University Treasurer by every student who registers, along with his other University fees. In the registration line every student is given an opportunity to state whether he wishes to contribute to the Y. M. C. A., and the amount. He makes his pledge by signing a statement which authorizes the University Treasurer to add to his regular bill the amount he wishes to subscribe to the "Y." On this plan last year a large majority of the student body pledged from $1 to $15 each to the "Y."

THE 1928-29 PROGRAM—The University Y. M. C. A. is "An organization of the students, for the students, and operated by the students." It isn't expected that any one department of the program will appeal to all, or that all departments of program will appeal directly to any one student. So that with the entire student body in mind, the program must of necessity carry very great variety. The chief mission of the Association is that of "drawing out of every man the highest, and best, and fullest there is in human life." This program is the visible, workable means to that end.

DORMITORY AND FRATERNITY ATHLETICS

(Intramural Athletics)

PURPOSE—The purpose of Intramural Athletics is expressed in the motto of the Department, "Every Student in Some Form of Healthful Exercise." Before the introduction of Intramurals the select few would compete and the masses would sit on the side lines and cheer. Now every student can take part in some competitive sport.

SPORTS—On the Intramural program there are twelve sports. In the fall quarter the annual Cake Race, Tag Football League and a Tennis Doubles Tournament are held; in the winter quarter Basketball, Wrestling, Boxing, Indoor Track, and Soccer; and in the spring quarter Outdoor Track, Tennis, Horseshoes, and Baseball.

DORMITORIES—Each dormitory at the beginning of the school year elects an athletic manager, who appoints managers for the sports in his dormitory. These managers canvass the dormitory for players and they organize a team to play the games. Each week a schedule is mailed to the manager and he notifies the players of the games.

FRATERNITIES—Fraternities are organized similar to dormitories, and through the manager the teams are formed and scheduled.

TROPHIES—There are trophies given to the winners of every championship. These trophies are given by the Grail, merchants in Chapel Hill, and people out in the State. The winner of the annual Cake Race is awarded a silver loving cup. At the end of the school year the high point man of Intramurals is awarded a silver loving cup by the Order of the Grail. Every man who competes in Intramurals has a record card in the Intramural office and from these cards the cup is awarded.

CAKE RACE—One of the most unique features of the entire Intramural program is the annual Cake Race which is held every fall. The ladies of Chapel Hill give 100 cakes and these are awarded to the first hundred men to cross the finish line. Last year 179 men took part in this event.

SONGS AND YELLS—The songs and yells included in this section are used at all Carolina athletic contests and pep meetings. The enthusiasm with which they are given is indicative of the school spirit of Carolina.

CHEERIOS—The organized cheering unit of 250 men which leads the songs and yells is called the Cheerios. Many of these men are freshmen, as membership is open to all classes.

CHEER LEADERS—The chief cheer leader is elected at the end of each school year, by a vote of the student body, from candidates nominated by the Monogram Club. He appoints four juniors as assistant cheer leaders and three sophomores as sub-assistants. Bill Chandler is next year's cheer leader.

A Congregation from all Carolina

The Methodists of North Carolina have erected here at Chapel Hill a beautiful and well equipped church building for the benefit of all the Methodist students who attend the University. The records for the past few years reveal the fact that one student out of every three in attendance here comes from a Methodist home. Quite naturally our church is interested to a superlative degree in the young men and women of the University. For them has been built in the midst of a busy campus life a structure amply able to take care of all those interested in various church activities such as the Epworth League, the Sunday School, socials, and the regular preaching services. We are here to serve as best we can the hundreds of students who have come from every section of our state and other states.

To all of you we give our greetings at the beginning of this new year. We bid you a cordial welcome to our church and insist that you become attendants upon our worship. We want each of you to help us form a great congregation from all Carolina. Not only on the Sabbath but on every day of the week we ask you to use our social halls for your pleasure and relaxation. Consider our church your home, and let us serve you as long as you remain in our delightful community. The University Methodist Church holds out to each student its right hand every day of the year.

C. Excell Rozzelle,
Minister.

The pastor, the student secretary, and all the people of the church extend to you their heartiest welcome to Chapel Hill and to the life of our church. Let us help you in every possible way to make your stay in the University community highly beneficial. We invite you to bring with you your church letter and to become affiliated with us from the very beginning. Call on the pastor and the student secretary in their offices on the second floor in the rear of the church building. Make free use of the "Students' Room" on the ground floor any time any day.

Baptist Student Union

The term "Baptist Student Union" includes all of the religious organizations for Baptist students carried on in and through this church. It means that all have a unity of purpose. That purpose is that all may be rightly related to Christ and His Kingdom's work. A Council composed of nine students and three others is the central agency to lead in the work. Membership on the Council is determined by student vote, and is open to those who prove their interest.

The Chapel of the Cross cordially welcomes all members of the Episcopal Church, and all others who care to worship with us. New Students are asked to make themselves known to Mr. Lawrence as soon as possible after their arrival in Chapel Hill.

Our policy is to have as little organization as possible. We want the Church to be a spiritual home, and not a club. So our only organizations are as follows:

The Student Vestry, in general charge of all Church activities for students.
The Bible Class. All men are urged to enroll in this class.
Young People's Service League.

Students who sing are invited to join the choir. Practice every Thursday at 7:15 p.m.

The Parish House is always open to students. On the ground floor there is a good reading room, provided with books and magazines, and up stairs there are a number of small rooms which offer excellent opportunities for study.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

You are cordially invited to all the services of the Church and both Pastor and members are anxious to become acquainted with you.

The Young Men's Bible Class will be taught by Prof. George McKie. Prof. McKie understands the problems of young men and has a profound insight into the Bible and the religious life.

The Young People's Society is planning a program of study that it feels will be valuable to those who come. There will be an open discussion at every meeting and a chance for a frank heart-to-heart talk on the serious things of life in which all are deeply interested.

There will be a Social hour every Sunday evening in the Social Rooms immediately after the evening service.

The Pastor will be in the Social Rooms the first three evenings of every week to meet with the young people. Come to see him. You will miss your home Church and we want you to be at home with us.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. B. J. Howard

We extend to you a hearty welcome to Chapel Hill and to the fellowship of the Christian church. We want you to feel perfectly at home and that you are one of us while you are here. In order for you to do this, we have established an honorary membership for any and all who do not find their particular denomination represented among the churches here. This membership gives you a real church home but puts you under no obligations nor in any way conflicts with your church affiliation back home. We welcome you into our midst, and extend you a cordial invitation to be with us.

FRATERNITIES

FRATERNITIES—Fraternities may be definied as bands of men joined together for companionship in college. At Carolina there are 31 national social fraternities, 4 local social fraternities, 13 professionals, and 2 women's fraternities. A national fraternity is one whch has chapters at various schools, while a local fraternity consists of a single chapter. The professional fraternity chooses its members from only one school of the University (i.e. Law, Medicine, etc.), while the social fraternities choose men from any school. The majority of fraternities own or rent houses in which the members live and, in some cases, have their meals.

BIDS—Membership in these fraternities is by invitation. Each fraternity bids those men who seem to be most congenial with that particular group. In selecting new members the various fraternities stress different qualities, such as: social standing, athletic prowess, literary and scholastic attainments, personality, character, wealth, and family "rating." Recommendations by alumni and fraternal connections in the family also play an important part.

RUSHING—The "rushing season" begins the first day of classes and continues for 26 days. During this period each fraternity entertains the freshmen to whom it considers extending bids. This entertainment usually consists of taking the men to the movies, to the drug store, on week-end trips, and having them around to the frat houses to play bridge and meet the "brothers."

PLEDGING—At the end of the rushing season there will be a "period of silence" lasting nearly two days, during which no fraternity man may rush or even talk to the freshmen. After this period the fraternity bids are given out through the Office of the Dean of Students.

INITIATING—Fraternity pledges may be initiated at the end of the winter quarter provided they have passed five courses, making at least two C's (85).

We, for the past ten years, have set the pace for exclusive clothing.

Last year our clothing was the talk of all big American Colleges—and was discussed in amazement by college men everywhere.

This was due to low cost and high quality.

This season our exclusive line of clothing is even greater—if you miss it, you will be sorry.

Your first leisure moments on the "Hill" spent in our store, will be advantageous to you. Drop in and see us.
